DEFENSE SCORES IN SAYLER CASE FOR FIRST TIME

Deposition of Mrs. Saylor at Inquest Is Barred From Evidence.

No Arrests Made in Moody Murder Case.

WOLTER HAS BEEN INDICTED.

Watsen, Ill., March 30.—The defense in the Saylor murder trial scored a victory when the judge ruled that Mrs. Saylor's and John Grunden's depositions before the coroner could not be used as evidence. Edward Hotelling was called to the stand this morning. Attorney Morris, for the defense, asked for a dismissal of Mrs. Saylor and Grunden at the conclusion of the state's evidence.

Wolter Will Be Indicted.

New York, March 30.—The grand jury returned an indictment against Albert Wolter this afternoon, charging him with murder in the first degree. He is accused of murdering Hugh Wheeler by strangling. He will be arraigned for pending before Judge Mulqueen, of the court of general sessions tomorrow.

Dr. O. Hanlon, the coroner's physician, Adelaide and Pearl Wheeler and Katherine Mueller were examined at the inquest this morning. A legal battle is due, when the district attorney attempts to put Wolter on trial early next week. Walter Scott, the attorney engaged by Wolter's father, says he won't permit the case to be rushed through. He must be given plenty of time to prepare a defense.

No Arrest in Moody Case.

Chicago, March 30.—Peter Peterson, former coachman of Alexander Moody, the murdered banker, arrived in Chicago and submitted to an examination by the police, regarding his knowledge of the death of Moody after eating meat poisoned with arsenic. Police have refused to make any arrests so far, although requested to do so by the state's attorney and the coroner. Assistant Chief Schuetler says he has plenty of circumstantial evidence, but not sufficient to make arrests.

Eastwood-Jones.

Fulton, Ky., March 30.—Miss Esie Jones, a pretty South Fulton girl, was married Sunday to Walter Eastwood, a prominent young citizen of Arlington, Ky.

Jackson-Walker.

Clinton, Ky., March 30.—Ed Jackson, of this place, and Miss Golda Walker, of Hardwell, were quietly married Thursday night at the home of the bride's sister in Hardwell. They will probably make this their home.

Registration in Cairo.

Cairo, Ill., March 30.—The first registration under the new city election law adopted last November was held today. Indications are that the greatest proportion of the 4,000 voters of Cairo will have qualified to vote at the city election on April 19 before closing time tonight. A number of voters were surprised to find that they were never naturalized, although they had been voting for several years.

FIREMAN CHARLES BELL

RENIGNS HIS POSITION.

Fireman Charles Bell resigned his position in the fire department today and in a few days will leave for Virginia, where he will work for a lumber company. For many years Mr. Bell has been a fireman since November, and has made a good record. Mr. Bell also served one year as city marketmaster.

Col. Belknap Dying

Louisville, Ky., March 30 (Special).—Col. Morris Belknap is dying. He was a candidate for governor in 1903.

SENATORIAL BRIBERY

PROBE IN OLD MISS.

Jackson, Miss., March 30.—Both the house and senate of the state legislature entered several caucuses in an effort to find the real extent of corruption in the senatorial election. The session scheduled to take action on charges brought by Senator Hilho was postponed. Attorney McNeill said the senate might attempt to cover things up, but he will go the limit in the investigation.

High School Boy Found Senseless on Floor of Recitation Room and Teacher's Desk Rifled of Contents

Some One Stole Money, While Lecture Was Going on in Auditorium—Tennis Racquet Found Beside Boy.

Facts in the Case—Miss Mildred Gardner gave Miss Martin P. Noble, a teacher, $20.00 to keep for her, which Miss Noble placed in a satchel in her desk without locking the drawer.

The classes were excused at 3:10 to hear a lecture in the auditorium on same floor.

Pupils sitting near the door of the auditorium could see down the hall through the open doors. They saw no one.

About 3:30 McClaine Mitchell entered the room.

About 4:15 he was found lying inside the room, unconscious, with a tennis racquet beside him.

The desk was rifled.

No clues are divulged, if any have been discovered.

Mystery still surrounds the finding of McClaine Mitchell unconscious yesterday afternoon, and the theft of about $30 from the desk of Miss Martin P. Noble at the High school. The police and school authorities have not divulged one single clue that will lead to the solving of the mystery, and are apparently as far from a solution as yesterday afternoon when it was reported.

This morning it was hoped that some light would be shed upon the theft, but this afternoon Principal W. H. Sugg was frank to say that it is a mystery to him. That a stranger would slip into the school undetected and secure the money and then knock young Mitchell unconscious to conceal the identity is held as possible, but credence is given the theory that somebody familiar with the circumstances took the money.

Before giving the money to Miss Noble, Miss Gardner had the money in the auditorium. When she gave it to Miss Noble for safe keeping a class was in recitation, and it was placed in a hand satchel, and that placed in a drawer, which was not locked.

Several months ago Miss Edna McLaughlin, a member of the faculty, missed a necklace from a drawer in her desk. In a few days the necklace was mysteriously replaced in the drawer after announcement had been made in the auditorium of the loss of the jewelry.

The double doors to the auditorium at the east end of the hall were open during the address, and a view of the entire length of the hall was afforded many pupils, who were seated near the doors. For these pupils it was easy for them to have seen anybody enter the hallway leading to Miss Noble's room.

There is some talk among the students of raising a purse to reimburse Miss Gardner for her loss. The student body regrets the entire affair, and are anxious that the money be returned or the guilty person be caught, even if one of the student body is implicated. Miss Gardner is a niece of W. A. Gardner, with whom she makes her home.

Finding of Mitchell.
Mitchell was found by Miss Noble and Miss Martin Williamson lying on the floor on his face with outstretched hands when they returned to the recitation room from the auditorium after the address had been delivered by Dr. L. F. Shaw. The

Survey For Bridge is All Complete

Metropolis, Ill., March 30.—Engineers engaged in surveying the approaches for the big steel bridge across the Ohio opposite this city have completed their work.

These surveyors have been at work on both sides of the river for several days.

Some weeks ago a bill was introduced into congress to secure a permit to build a bridge at this point. The survey was for the purpose of furnishing additional data for the information of that body.

The report will go to Washington this week and immediate action may be expected.

Mr. Scudder, purchasing agent for the Burlington, was here a few days ago trying to buy more ground west of the city for railroad shops. He will be back in a few days to resume negotiations.

The board of mayor and aldermen amended the recent ordinance passed

MC CREARY BOOM FOR GOVERNOR

INDICATIONS ARE THAT LAW-RENCE WAS BEATING THE BUSINESS FOR HIM.

It is believed that the purpose of the visit to Henry R. Lawrence, chairman of the First District congressional Democratic committee, last week was not so much in the interest of his prospective candidacy for the state senate, as to line up the country press for former Senator James B. McCreary for the Democratic nomination as governor. Several weeks ago General Lawrence in his paper, the Cadiz Record, advocated Senator McCreary as the logical candidate for the leadership of the Democratic party in the next gubernatorial race.

Since his visit over the western part of the state several of the country newspapers have come out with booms for McCreary, and it is said that his workers are out in all fields in the state building up the tenses.

GAYNOR VETOES ORDINANCE.

It Provided That Dates Be Put On Cold Storage Articles.

New York, March 30.—Mayor Gaynor this afternoon forwarded to the board of aldermen his veto of the ordinance providing for the establishment of a system of recording dates when food products were placed in cold storage. The proposed ordinance was the outgrowth of the recent agitation against alleged cold storage abuses following the meat boycott movement.

FOREST FIRES RISE HIGHER.

Fruit Farms and Buildings Fail to Check Flames.

Mammoth Springs, Ark., March 30.—Forest fires reached the Culver fruit farm nine miles north of here, and burned five acres of peach trees before its progress could be checked. The town of Keshong turned out and gave assistance. Reports from the country adjacent to Mammoth Springs tell of many barns being burned.

ROOSEVELTS OFF FOR ALEXANDRIA AND THEN EUROPE

Great Crowds Attend Them to Station at Cairo
Egypt Today.

Etina Again Active and Lava Flowing.

MENELIK'S DEATH REPORTED.

Cairo, Egypt, March 30.—The Roosevelt family left for Alexandria this morning. They sail for Naples today. The station was filled with friends. Mrs. Roosevelt received a large bouquet sent from the Khedive. Colonel Roosevelt declared he hoped no bad effects would result from his speeches. English fear the Nationalist will make capital out of his remarks.

Colonel General Iddings, Ambassador Strauss and a personal representative of the Khedive saw the Roosevelts off. The colonel declared before leaving that in his opinion he had said nothing to stir up the Nationalists, and the only thing that could have offended them was the remark in his speech to the University of Egypt, that people seeking self-government should first prepare themselves for it. He said yesterday's demonstration was the most interesting incident in an interesting visit.

Roosevelts Sail.

Alexandria, Egypt, March 30.—The Roosevelts sailed from Alexandria at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Roosevelt sent telegrams of thanks to the Khedive and sidr. Before sailing he received a telegram from Sir Edwin Gerst, thanking him for what he said in his speeches. They were of inestimable good to English rule in Egypt. He delivered an address to the boys of Benham mission school. This was his last address in Egypt.

Etina Again Active.

Catania, March 30.—A huge lava stream from erupting Mt. Etina is slowly moving toward Catania. People are hysterical with fright. Fresh craters are appearing daily. Thirty-five are now in action. The lava flow is no greater. Ashes destroyed all vegetation.

Troopers Killed in Week.

Herrin, March 30.—Between 20 and 50 soldiers were killed in a railroad collision at Anselm, Tenn. Ten bodies have been recovered. Others can be seen in the ruins. The smashed trains were a troop train and a freight train. None of the troop train passengers were injured.

King Menelik Is Dead.

London, March 30.—Dispatches from the capital of Abyssinia today confirm King Menelik's death. The announcement was withheld so that Ras Tsema, regent, could make preparations against a threatened attack of the supporters of the Empress Taitu.

Into Alaskan Holdings of Guggenheims and J. P.

Washington, March 29. (Special).—Congressman Ollie James asked for the removal of Postmaster Ray, at Sedalia, Ky., against whom charges of official misconduct have been made. One of the charges relates to the manner of handling Mrs. James' mail.

Storm the White House.

Two thousand persons stormed the white house offices today desiring to shake the hands of the president. Once the crowd broke through the police line and crowded through the door and through window into the presidential ante-room. Several women fainted and were carried out. The mob that swept through the police lines was composed mostly of high school graduates and school teachers. They swept police away. It looked as if the white house was in a panic for a time. The president shook hands with 1,500. He was forced to turn the rest away in order to attend a wedding. Several senators were compelled to climb through a window to get into the building.

The Alaska Syndicate.

The Ballinger investigating committee issued an order to produce the documentary evidence to find if Alaskan wealth is in the hands of the Guggenheims and J. P. Morgan. Guggenheim documents were examined this morning.

The order issued today by the Ballinger investigators indicates that the first apparent object of the investigation may be lost sight of and be superseded in public interest by a direct inquiry into the question of whether the entire wealth of Alaska has fallen into plutocratic hands. The committee has before it several documents, showing the exact agreements between Guggenheim and the Guggenheims, the price they paid for their interest in these mines and rate at which the company should furnish Guggenheims with products. Another document, dated several months later, and sworn to by Clarence Cunningham, bore the statement that the Guggenheims own no interest whatsoever in the Cunningham claims.

Discrepancies between the two statements were pointed out to Garfield and he said in behalf of the Guggenheims that the last statement was false.

Paducah Central

Amended articles of incorporation were filed today by the Paducah Central Business college and University company changing the name to the Paducah Central Business college. The capital stock is fixed at $5,000. The number of directors was also reduced to three instead of five.

TWO REALTY DEALS ARE CONSUMMATED

MRS. BORNEMAN WILL BUILD
IN GREGORY HEIGHTS—
BROOKS HOME.

A deal has just been consummated whereby Mrs. Jane Tyler Hornemann purchases seven choice lots in Gregory Heights, fronting 300 feet on Thirty-fourth street, and extending to a depth of 200 feet. The lots, which are of different sizes, were purchased from the Gregory Heights Realty company and the deal made through Mr. C. E. Jennings. Mrs. Hornemann will erect a bungalow in the center of the site, which will be torn down and beautifully improved. She will make this her home. Street cars pass along Thirty-fourth street. Architect W. L. Brainerd is drawing the plans, which will be finished soon. The bungalow will cost several thousand dollars. The building is to be completed and ready for occupancy by July 1.

Ann Property May Be Sold.

A deal for the sale of the Inn property, 217 North Seventh street, owned by Dr. J. G. Brooks, to Mr. H. C. Rhodes is pending and probably will be closed April 1. The consideration is not known. Mr. Rhodes and his family will occupy the residence and many improvements to the building will be made. It is said a ten foot strip of the Inn property will be retained by Dr. Brooks and added to his adjoining lot.

NEW IMPROVEMENT LAWS DISCUSSED BEFORE COUNCIL

Either Immediate Work or Test of Constitutionality
Will be Started.

New Police and Fire Alarm System Accepted.

TAX LEVY ORDINANCE PASSES.

Probably the first step the city will take in the way of street and sewer improvements this year, since the special 10-year assessment bond bills have been made a part of the Kentucky statutes, will be to test the constitutionality of both bills before ordering any new work. This expression was made last night at a meeting of the committee of the whole, comprising both the upper and lower boards of the general council. The matter of testing the new law was suggested by Alderman P. H. Stewart, and if there is any doubt in the minds of the members of the general council as to the soundness of the bills, this proceeding will be instituted.

As a whole the bills are good ones, in the opinion of City Solicitor James Campbell, Jr. But, he admitted that one clause, taxing property owners for sprinkling, is unconstitutional, as a similar case was tested in the court of appeals and so declared in the case of the city of Owensboro vs. Sweeney. Mr. Campbell said this clause became a part of the law inadvertently but it may be ignored, as it will have no effect on the constitutionality of the rest of the bill. He believes the property owners can be taxed by a general tax but not by a special tax for sprinkling the city streets.

Another clause, about which the city solicitor has his doubts, is that, which provides that the bonds issued by the city for street and sewer improvements, shall be exempt from taxation. Mr. Campbell said last night he is of the opinion that the bonds can be taxed. These, however, are small features of the two bills, which are said to be the best laws cities of the state have ever been given in the way of municipal improvements.

A meeting of the committee of the whole was called by Mayor Pro Tem Ed D. Hannan after the special meetings of the upper and lower boards were concluded. The meeting was for the purpose of discussing the two new bills that are now law and to have them explained to some who were not entirely familiar with them. Mr. Hannan was made chairman of the meeting and City Solicitor Campbell was requested to read the two bills before the body.

Mr. Campbell explained at the start that both the sewer and street improvement bills imply the same thing and are practically identical as far as improvements were to be made. In order to shorten the meeting he read the street bill only in its entirety, explaining as he proceeded. One important change in the law is that part, which refers to the dedication of streets. The bill recites that if a street, opened for public use, remains so for a period of five years, it then becomes the city's property. At the

FOUR COUNTRY HAMS ARE

STOLEN FROM SMOKEHOUSE

For the second time thieves visited the smokehouse of Will Albert, a farmer residing near Maxon Mills, last night and stole four country hams and three shoulders. The hams weighed 20 pounds each, and with the present high price of meat if the thief is caught he will have to answer to the charge of grand larceny. Some time ago thieves entered the meat house and stole meat and Mr. Albert did not anticipate a second visit. Bloodhounds have been secured at Harpersburg, Ill., and will arrive this afternoon. They will be used to trace the thief.

BOND HOLDERS.

C. E. Stinson, an engineer, representing bondholders of the Paducah Home Telephone company, was in the city today inspecting the local exchange. The purpose of his visit was to make a report of the condition of the exchange, and it is said that it will have bearing upon the reorganization of the company. Recently the exchange was sold by J. D. Powers, the receiver appointed by federal court, and was bought in by the bondholders. As soon as the sale is confirmed by the court the company will be reorganized and it is tipped that Colonel Powers will be vice-president of the company.

In the face of all the litigation the company has had the business in the city has increased rapidly and the number of subscribers is increasing steadily.

NEW YORK TO BE DRY ON SUNDAY

MAYOR GAYNOR GIVES OUT HIS PROMISED PLAN.

Police Are Left Out and State Excise Department Is Given Responsibility.

THE LAW SHOULD WORK WELL.

New York, March 30.—William J. Gaynor, mayor of Greater New York, gave out his promise plan of action making a "dry" city on Sunday, and at the same time to eradicate extortions by the police, which he characterizes as worse than Sunday selling. He says the saloonkeepers and liquor men have been paying money weekly and monthly to police officers in plain clothes for protection from arrest for violation of the Sunday closing law. In a letter to William H. Baker, commissioner of police, he placed the entire responsibility of handling the violations in the hands of the state excise department and the district attorney's office. The police are practically forbidden to make arrests. The letter says the policemen must suspect every barroom from without continually during the prohibitive hours and see that the law prohibiting screens is complied with. Any neglect of duty is punishable by dismissal.

His next recommendation is to let the state excise officer, "separate and apart from the local police," obtain necessary evidence of violation which shall be submitted to the district attorney.

"This is a time honored, safe and orderly method, as prescribed by the statute itself," says the mayor, "and strictly followed by the state authorities; whereas the police in this city ignore the statute."

If the local police desire to act they shall do so only making a formal complaint under oath to the district attorney.

The mayor condemns certain temperance organizations and reformers, whom he charges with having encouraged insubordination among the police.

ARRESTS JAPANESE SPIES IN MANILA

SECRETARY DICKINSON DEMANDS FULLER REPORT.

If Report Is True It Contains All the Elements Necessary to Cause Friction.

SKETCHING FORTIFICATIONS

Washington, March 30.—The cablegram from Maj.-Gen. Duvall, commanding the division of the Philippines, to the war department yesterday regarding the capture of two Japanese who are alleged to have been making plans of the fortification of Manila harbor, was forwarded from Washington to Secretary Dickinson, who is now in Nashville, Tenn., closing some private business. The secretary found that the cablegram was not clear and was lacking in essential details, so by his instructions the war department has called upon Gen. Duvall for a fuller statement.

There is no authority to arrest a spy within the limits of the United States in time of peace. The most that can be done when a person is detected taking notes and pictures and drawings of fortifications is to expel him from the military reservation.

It is possible that the Philippine code contains laws that will justify the reported arrest of the two Japanese. Otherwise the incident contains all of the elements necessary to cause friction between American and Japan.

Hence Duvall's extended report is awaited with interest.

The High school robbery case should be probed to the bottom, not only for the punishment of the guilty, but for the justification of the innocent.

AMERICAN SAVINGS.
Heretofore lacking statistics of our own, excepting those compiled by reform associations to show how bad we are, Americans are amazed at figures indicating the thrift and homely virtues of other nations. Then we are amazed again when shown that our own figures excel all others.An exchange says:
"More money is put into the custody of savings banks, against the proverbial rainy day, by the average American citizen, than by the residents of any other quarter of the globe. Figures made public by William Hanhart, secretary of the savings bank section of the American Bankers' association, and compiled from reports of the comptroller of the currency and the national monetary commission, show that the average deposit in American savings banks is almost four times as great as the average for Europe, Asia, Africa, Oceania, Canada, etc., and that the average deposit, per capita, is almost six times greater in the United States than in the other portions of the world mentioned. The statistics given out place the total savings deposits in the world at $15,389,672,014, and of this enormous sum $5,678,735,379 belongs to Americans."

"One American in every six of the total population has money in a savings bank, and the average deposit is $381.28. In the rest of the world the depositors number one to every eight of population, and the average sum to their credit is $101.66." This refutes the argument that foreigners send money to foreign government banks, and a postal savings bank would call money out of hiding. Money sent home by immigrants more likely is sent to relieve the distress of kinsmen in less favored countries.

THE PRESIDENT'S OPPORTUNITY.
Repeatedly Washington correspondents have sent out inspired stories—The Evening Sun received one yesterday and couched it to the waste basket—that President Taft is disgusted with the presidency and will not be a candidate for a second term; because of the opposition to the Payne tariff. Instead of being a source of worry to the president the opposition to the tariff and the insurgent movement against Cannon and Aldrich are really instruments by which the president can secure the very reforms he is seeking.

The split in the Republican organization in the house offers the president his opportunity to play one faction against the other in effecting desired legislation, and there are ample evidences to the open-eyed that he is doing that very thing; while the clamor about tariff revision with congressional elections pending, may enable him to force through congress the appropriation of $250,000 for a tariff investigation.

No sane mind can disagree with President Taft's statement that tariff legislation has always been a matter of harter and trade among Republicans and Democratic congressmen, and that no general scheme of tariff revision based on the principles of fair protection for the whole country, has ever been evolved, for the very good reason that no one has possessed the necessary data on which to plan such a scheme. He purposed to put scores of statistical clerks at work, gathering data in this and all other countries, as to the relative cost of production, the sources of supply, the wage scales, the cost of living, the means and expense of transportation to factories and the market, and all other facts essential to an intelligent understanding of the subject. This data is to be placed before the tariff commission, already appointed by the president, who will prepare a report for congress.

It is well understood that the representatives of the interests throughout the tariff commission would be a harmless fad of the president and without the clamor that is being raised, it is probable that congress would refuse the appropriation necessary to carry on the work.

This investigation entails almost insupportable work and elaboration. All the facts heretofore submitted to congress on the tariff question have come from interests desiring high tariff on their products or no tariff on their materials, and all the opposition to the schedules has come from districts, where the articles are consumed and not made or produced. Disinterested and unquestionable data prepared by experts and laid before the country would arm the press and the true representative of the people with knowledge of all the subjects touched upon, and the congressman or senator, who would vote unreasonably high or low tariff, would be in the embarrassing position of explaining his conduct otherwise than by an appeal to spread eagle patriotism.

We believe that the Massachusetts election and the insurgency are clubs in the hands of the president; and smile as he may, there be those in high position at Washington, who know that he understands how to hold a tight rein and how to throw a lash into the flank of a wheel horse.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

An Inquiry.
Editor Sun:—I notice in the columns of your paper that an effort will be made to make the property owners on Fountain avenue and the northern part of the city construct a brick sewer ten feet in diameter to carry off the sewerage in district No. 3. Why should the aforesaid property owners pay for such an enormous sewer when the sewerage of districts No. 1 and 2 is provided for with a tile sewer pipe 22 inches in diameter?

STATE PRESS.

The Available Man.
It is about time the Democrats of Kentucky were beginning to look about for some man suited in the Democratic party to nominate and carry the party to victory for governor at the next state election.

We had hoped that our fellow townsman Judge J. E. Robbins, who is a sterling Democrat, capable and popular, would have consented to have been a candidate for this office, but since he has decided not to enter the race, and since our popular congressman, Ollie M. James, is a candidate for the United States senate, and of course cannot be considered at all in the gubernatorial race.

We have been looking out over the field and find that notwithstanding Senator James B. McCreary is rather advanced in years, yet we believe at present he is the most available Democrat. His Democracy has never been questioned. He has led the party to victory in many fierce campaigns. His fidelity as an official, and his character as a man are beyond criticism. He has discharged the duties of all the important positions, which the people of the commonwealth have confided to him, with marked ability and fidelity. He is the soul of honor, and bears himself always as a gentleman. He is an ideal candidate, without dangerous alliances with any faction in the party. He is conservative, fair and liberal, and always considerate of the opinions of others. His action as a life-long Democrat is a platform in itself.

Possessed of this record and these characteristics, we feel no hesitancy in presenting his name to the Democrats of Kentucky, believing that he can unite all of the discordant elements in the party and crown our efforts with a glorious victory. Surveying the field of possible and announced candidates, no one of them appears with the positive strength which he possesses to begin with, and certainly none can hope to arouse such a general and enthusiastic following throughout the state. Some one may be stronger in a given locality, but if so, he is unknown and without following in every other quarter. But Senator McCreary is strong everywhere, and numbers his personal and political friends not only among the people of every district, but of every county in Kentucky. He needs no introduction either to the Democrats or the people of any locality, and no one will be required to explain his personal or political action, or called upon to make defense of either. Under his leadership our campaign may be an aggressive and not merely a defensive one. If he shall consent to stand for the nomination we predict that in a short time, not only the masses, but the leaders of the party will recognize his eminent fitness, and that he will, by proclamation, be accorded the post of honor. His nomination will banish strife from the party and give us an old time Democratic victory.

Senator McCreary has always been popular with the First district Democrats; there has never been a time in his long public career that his popularity was not supreme with Graves county Democrats.
It now looks like he is the available Democrat Moses to lead the party to victory at the next state election.—Mayfield Messenger.What a Foolish Question.

ERUPTIONS THROWN OFF SUN.

Masses of Luminous Gas 150,000 Miles Long.
Chicago, March 30.—Strange eruptions have appeared on the sun, according to a statement by Prof. Edwin B. Frost, director of the Yerkes observatory at Williams Bay, Wis.
"The eruptions which shoot from the surface of the sun like skyrocket," said Professor Frost, "are easily discernible at the edge of the disc. One of them shot out to a length of 150,000 miles, as near as we could estimate. It then detached itself from the main body and sped through space, a mass of luminous gas not dissimilar to a comet. Before it disappeared it had reached a distance from the sun of about 250,000 miles. The eruptions are probably caused by the release of pressure on some particular spot of the sun."

Professor Frost said the sun disturbances probably accounted for brilliant auroral displays which have been seen in Chicago and vicinity recently.

HIGH SCHOOL BOY

teachers called him by name but the boy never moved, and assistance was summoned. Superintendent J. A. Carnahan was standing in the hall, and was one of the first to reach Mitchell's side. It was believed that he had fainted, and after water was dashed on his face he stirred, looked dazed for a few minutes, and remarked that somebody had struck him.

Little heed was given the statement, as the discovery of the robbery was not made until a short time later, when Miss Noble found that her desk had been rifled and $29.90 placed in her keeping by Miss Mitchell Gardner, a student, as well as one dollar belonging to her, had been stolen from her purse, which was in her desk. Miss Gardner cashed the check for $30 at noon, and, after paying the exchange, received $29.90. About 2 o'clock she asked Miss Noble to keep the money for safety. The money was placed in the purse by Miss Noble with $1.10 in change.

For the purpose of attending the lecture, all of the grades were dismissed at 3 o'clock, and the entire lower floors were vacant as the teachers went to the auditorium for the address. All classes in the High school were dismissed and the students assembled for the lecture. The address was begun at 3:15 o'clock, but Mitchell had some back work to make up and spent some time in the laboratory. He walked into the hall, and, as near as can be estimated, about 3:30 o'clock went into Miss Noble's room.

As he walked down the narrow hallway he said he heard a noise, but walked into the recitation room, and after taking a few steps remembered nothing until aroused. He was taken to his home, 1225 Jefferson street.

Scene of the Robbery.

The room of Miss Noble is in the southwest corner of the building, on the third floor. Originally it was part of a large room, but a partition was erected, and in order to enter the room it was necessary to pass through a narrow hall, formerly used as a cloak room. At the end of the hall there is a partition, which divides off a cloak room, used by the teachers. From the recitation room to the cloak room there is a door about two feet from the door through which Mitchell walked. As the lad entered the room it would have been possible for anybody to have concealed himself in the cloak room and then have struck the blow from behind.

A tennis racket, belonging to David Humphreys, a student, was found by the side of Mitchell. The racket was in the cloak room, and it is the theory of the school officials that the guilty person was doing his work when interrupted by the approach of the boy. It is believed that he darted into the cloak room, and, as Mitchell entered the room and advanced towards the desk a blow was struck with the racket.

No gun was cut on the boy's head, although a welt was raised on the back of his head on the left side. Whether the racket was used as the means of felling the boy is a mooted question, as it is claimed that so severe a blow with the edge would have cut the neck.

Mitchell had a ring with an emerald setting in his pocketbook. After he revived this was missing, although a small amount of pocket change in his trousers pocket was undisturbed. None of the other desks were tampered with and nothing else has been missed from the building. Frequent complaints have been received of small amounts of money and valuables being missed from the cloak room, but nobody was ever caught.

Yesterday afternoon Professor W. H. Sugg notified Chief of Police Henry Singery and the chief assigned Sergeant Lige Cross on the case. Little tangible evidence was gathered last night, and the case remained a mystery today.

Various theories are offered, but the general opinion is that somebody with a knowledge of the situation had a hand in the affair. No body at the school remembers seeing a stranger, and only a few persons were aware that Miss Gardner had given the money to Miss Noble to place in the desk. A stranger would hardly have entered a school building during the afternoon at a time when ordinarily school is in session and have sought out in this room, which is located inconspicuously.

NEW IMPROVEMENT

end of this time the city acknowledges the dedication.

There are many other excellent features of the bill. One especially is the saving of expense for both property owner and contractor. Instead of estimates being furnished the contractor and compelling him to collect from the property owner, the property owner pays his or her part of the improvement to the city treasurer and the treasurer settles with the contractor. In this way the contractor and property owner do not come in contact with each other in a business way. After the time limit, when all money is due, if there are any delinquent payers, the contractor can bring one suit making all of the property owners who have not paid, defendants for the collection of the amounts. Hereafter the contractor has been required to bring individual suits. This is a good feature also. However, no trouble in this regard is anticipated as property owners will have ten years in which to pay for improvements.

Mr. Campbell said that the people of Paducah are going to undertake some vast improvements this year, he believes. He said many have come to him since the bills have passed in the legislature asking him how to proceed in getting the city to provide for improvements. A petition to the general council asking for the work is the usual custom. The new bills, he said, would throw more work on the shoulders of the city officials. There is no limit to the amount of bonds to be issued.

Will Act at Once.

At the next regular meeting of the general council some action will be taken. It will either be ordered that the constitutionality of the bills be tested by an ex parte proceeding, or that steps be taken for improvements in proceeding. Mr. Campbell said: "A resolution is passed in the two boards favoring the improvement. This is published in the official newspaper for five days before the ordinance is drawn up, giving the property owners ample time in which to reply. If they are opposed to the work they will send in a petition to the general council. If over 50 percent of the property owners along the line of improvement oppose the work it must take a two-thirds vote of the members-elect of the general council to call out a bond issue for the work."

As to the constitutionality of the laws Mr. Campbell says he believes there is no flaw and they hardly need testing. However, if there is any doubt this can be speedily done.

Will Have New Alarm System.

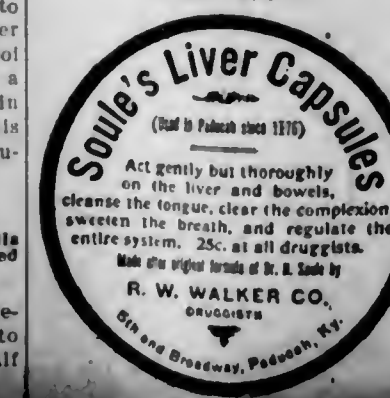

Paducah is to have 50 combination police and fire alarm boxes. Last night at a called meeting of the general council Mayor James P. Smith was empowered to close a contract with the Home Telephone company for the rental of fifty boxes at $1 per month with the right to purchase them at the end of twelve months. The company offers to install the system free and it will work independently of the telephone system. Chief Wood, of the fire department, explained the working of the boxes and their advantages and modern features. None of the members opposed the motion. The boxes will be ordered at once and set up in about thirty days. It will be some time before the connections are made and in proper working order.

The council and aldermen also gave first and second passages to the ordinance fixing the city tax rate on personal and real estate property at $1.85 per $100, with a poll tax at $1.50 for each male resident of the city 21 years of age and over.

All members of the council were present, and in the board of aldermen Alderman Farley was the only one absent. Present were: Councilmen Duval, Mayor, Horton, Hannin, Foreman, Lally, Budde, Wilson, Bowser, McCarthy, Krentzer and Leigh. Aldermen Stewart, Hannan, Oehl-schlaeger, Hank, Lackey, Van Meter and Potter.

Tax Levy Passes.
Two meetings of the council and the aldermen were held last night for the purpose of passing the tax levy ordinance, which fixes the city tax rate for the year 1914 at $1.85. The city will receive $150 on every $100 valuation and the schools 35 cents.YOU DON'T HAVE TO WAIT.

GENERAL ACCUSATION OF FRAUD AND MISMANAGEMENT.

Companies Are Flayed by Man Who Claims He is on the Inside of Insurance Deals.

Louisville, March 30.—In a suit filed here late by which William G. Han, a stockholder in the Citizens' Life Insurance company, asking to be allowed to sue for himself and other stockholders, seeks to head off a merger of the Citizens' Life and the Citizens' National Life Insurance company. He asks that the officers and directors of the Citizens' Life company be required to come into court for oral examination as to the financial condition of the company and that it may be ascertained as to the financial management, and, if it be insolvent, that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the company's affairs and wind up its business.

The allegations or charges made against the company may be summarized as follows:

That the directors and officers of the company are mismanaging its affairs and paying the officers large and exorbitant salaries greatly out of proportion of the services rendered.

Mayfield News

Mayfield, Ky., March 30. (Special)—Mr. Freeman Holbrook died at the state asylum at Hopkinsville this morning at 11 o'clock. He had been in bed for several years, brought on by a hard fall. His ill health affected his mind and he was sent to the asylum about a month ago. Mr. Holbrook was one of the oldest residents of Graves county, being about 76 years of age, and having spent the greater part of his life in this county. He was well known both in town and county, being related to some of Graves county's most prominent families. The deceased was a member of the First Baptist church of this city. The funeral arrangements have not yet been announced.

A hand-made combing-jacket was the guests' prize and the lucky visitor was Mrs. Mack Glasgow, while the consolation, a toby little dust cap, went to Miss Pauline Pitman. The score cards were large hand-painted pink carnations, the work of the hostess. A delicious salad course was served to the following club members and guests: Misses Marion Happy, Mabel Norman, Myrtle Blossom Beaumont, Pauline Pitman, Lew Gardner, Agnes Carter, Jean Carter, Debbie Taylor and May Morrow. THIEVES PROBABLY FUGITIVE.

Blood Found in Room of Richmond Postoffice Robbers.

Richmond, Va., March 30.—Bloody mystery has entered into the excitement of the startling robbery of the cashier's safe in the postoffice robbery which was discovered here.

Stains of red were found on the floor of a room in the basement of a cheap hotel near the temporary postoffice building, to which thieves have been traced by detectives, who have a theory that the thieves quarreled and fought while packing the booty preparatory to flight on one of the night trains out of Richmond.

It was reported by a railway detective that the government inspectors had ascertained where the stolen stamps were sent and that the plunder will be seized upon arrival at destination.

all cigar smokers are seeking and which few of them ever

There's a new HUMIDOR in

There's no more of that dry,

DISTRESSING BREATHLESSNESS

Mrs. Hentz, of Adel, Has An Interesting Story to Tell About How
Her Husband Cured Her
With Cardui.

Adel, Ga.—"For 3 years, I suffered with female troubles," writes Mrs. C.
J. Hentz, "When I would lie down I could hardly breathe. I had a distressing feeling in my breast, and I could not do any work at all, without being exhausted. My husband heard of Cardui and we decided to try it. I took it according to directions and in 3 days I could tell it was helping me.
I can now do all my work, and do not suffer at all. I give Cardui the praise for it, and recommend it to all."

We have thousands of such letters, and more are arriving every day. For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving women's sufferings, and building weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It will help you, for it has helped a million others. Its ingredients are purely vegetable, and harmless, yet curatively restoring in their action on the womanly organs.

Your druggist sells Cardui because there is a demand for it. The demand proves it to be a good medicine.

HOY BLACKMAILER FINED

Admits Sending Threatening Letters to Asa G. Chandler.

Atlanta, Ga., March 30.—Daniel W. Johnson, Jr., "the boy black-mailer," was fined $250 today in the United States district court, after pleading guilty to sending threatening letters through the mails to Asa G. Chandler, a wealthy Atlanta banker, in which he demanded $25, 000 to be left at a secluded spot named. Considerable excitement was created in Atlanta a year ago when it became known that Mr.
Chandler had received several letters demanding a large cash sum and threatening to dynamite his handsome residence if the money was not forthcoming. When postoffice inspectors fastened the crime upon Johnson, 17 years old and a former member of Chandler's Sunday school class, the latter immediately took steps to have the federal authorities drop the case, but in this he failed. His brother, however, appeared in court today and made a request for leniency. The fine was paid by Johnson's father.

probate court here giving to the Kansas City Trust company for a consideration not named all interests in the Swope estate. Judge W.
T. Johnson, one of Dr. Hyde's attorneys, is president of the Kansas City

WHAT GLASGOW DID

SCOTTISH CITY HAS RID ITSELF
OF CONSUMPTION.

Paducah Will Do Same Thing If the People Will Aid the Effort Liberally.

The Tubercular colony on Jackson hill probably will hold out hope to many by giving them sun light, pure air and good sanitary surroundings, through the efforts of the good people who are supporting the colony.

Glasgow, Scotland, has nearly driven the disease from its confines by the combined effort of its citizens in the last ten years. The March (1910) death roll of that city was 343, and not a death from tuberculosis. Ten years ago the rate per ten thousand was 19, not quite what Paducah is. What Glasgow did Paducah can and will do in the same manner when the best business men and women take hold.

The people have been aroused as never before in this combat against the most devastating disease known to mankind. The question is how can the forces which have been aroused be directed into the channels which yield the best results in the shortest time and the most economic way.

There is one immediate way for people of Paducah and that is encourage the anti-tuberculosis league in establishing the colony at Jackson's hill. Come out tomorrow night at the Woman's club and help them

Neighbors Batter Down Door Make Grossome Find.

Lorain, O., March 30.—Miss Ruby Richards, aged 40, of this city, and Miss Dorothy Richards, of Chicago, her sister, were both shot to death this evening by David Vesper, a sporting man and gambler known in Cleveland and Chicago. Vesper then shot himself, dying almost instantly.

Neighbors who battered in the door after hearing the shots found the bodies of all three on the floor of the room in the Richards home. The body of Ruby Richards, fully dressed, was lying face downward, and the lifeless form of her sister recumbent across her. Dorothy Richards was clad in her night dress. Vesper was in a far corner of the room, a revolver beside him and his face blackened by the powder marks of the weapon. The direct cause of the tragedy is unknown.

This Bottle

Contains a Real Remedy for Eczema

Perhaps you have used, as have all sufferers with Eczema and other skin troubles—the ordinary greasy salves and ointments. Really that is the wrong way to go about it. That kind of treatment may give temporary relief but it fails to destroy the germs causing the disease. Therefore permanent results are a question. Besides they soil the clothing and linens and are disagreeable to use.

ZEMO

The Clean Treatment

is a clean, liquid, vegetable remedy for external use. It gives instant relief and effects a permanent cure because it draws to the surface of the skin and destroys the germ life causing the disease, leaving the skin clean and healthy. Use Zemo for Eczema, Pimples, Blackheads, Dandruff and all diseases of the skin and scalp.

Our Booklet—"How to Tell Skin Diseases"—and sample bottle of Zemo mailed free for the price of postage 5—2c stamps.

GOOD CHEER AND FINE FELLOWSHIP

MARK BANQUET OF MEN'S BIBLE CLASS.

Hundred and Fifty Sit Down Together at Broadway Methodist Church.

RESPONSES TO THE TOASTS

One hundred and fifty men, wearing in their lapels red and white buttons of the Broadway Methodist Men's Bible class, sat down to a banquet in the church parlors last evening, at tables lighted with red and white candles and adorned with red and white carnations intertwined with ferns; ate a most delicious and substantial feast, prepared by the Ramsey society of the church, and listened to a number of addresses that inspired them with enthusiasm and renewed devotion to the cause of man.

The tables were most effective in their arrangements and appointments. Three were placed lengthwise the room and two across. They were lighted by candelabra of red and white carnations intertwined with ferns extended the length of each table. The Japanese napkins were red and white and the menu cards and programs were attractively gotten up on red paper with the pictures of the church. The class colors, red and white, were further prettily elaborated in the red and white brick cream and the block cakes laid in white and decorated with the red class button. The rooms were beautifully decorated with potted plants. The class and their guests entered the banquet room to martial music. In battalions led by the class general, Major J. H. Ashcraft.

The delightful menu that was discussed from 7:20 to 9:30 o'clock was:

Fruit Punch.
Breaded Veal Cutlets, Tomato Sauce.
French Peas en Case.
Creamed Potatoes.
Spaghetti Italiane, Ramsey Salad.
Baked Corn, Cake.
Demi Tasse. Cigars.

A lack of formality and plenty of good fellowship marked the beginning, the middle and the end of the menu, after the Rev. W. J. Meedy had invoked divine blessing, and when Mr. H. C. Rhodes, president of the class and toastmaster, called the banqueters to order, they settled themselves back comfortably in a mood to be pleased with anything that could be said for the good of the cause.

The order of responses was such as to give the gentlemen present an idea of the scope of the movement, the difficulties encountered in organizing the class, the way they were overcome and the advantages already realized. Mr. W. J. Meedy was suddenly called out of town and could not be present to respond to the toast, "The Business Man and His Bible."

The Rev. D. C. Wright, who was the first speaker and he addressed himself to the crux of the situation. The obvious fact that busy men have neglected their bibles, the reason, the way to get them back into the Sunday school, the appalling ignorance concerning the Scriptures, the necessity of getting men to realize the importance of Bible study, the way to keep them at it and a systematic organization for the purpose of working—these he considered the important issues, which when once met and worked out, made such an institution.

Reserve Power.
County Judge Allen Barkley talked on "Reserve Power." He drew illustrations from an army at rest, the locomotive and the steamship with steam up, but power unimpeded. He said the reserve power is what counts in the long run, power should be applied according to the requirements, energy should not be wasted either by applying more than the occasion demands or reserving it when the occasion demands extra effort. He then talked of the church, of the effort wasted in doctrinal controversy, of the cry of the world for help and the way in which a movement as the men's class can reach that need.

Professor Carnegie.
Prof. J. A. Carnegie spoke of the "Aftermath of the Awakening." He told of those faithful souls who labored to start the class, of their efforts, doubts, failures and ultimate success. He pointed to an enrollment of 161, and said there are 4,500 men in Paducah and only 500 in the Sunday school. He saw as a result of interesting the men a better grip on the boys, who copy the men.

The Crisis.
The Rev. W. J. Meedy spoke of "The Present Crisis and the Future Outlook." He called for the application of that reserve power the Christian men possess to the problems of today in the spirit of the Messiah, looking to the future and trusting to Providence for the final reward.

The Ladies.
Dr. L. F. Snow, of the State university, complimented the Ramsey society for its interest in the men and the sure benefits of the good fellowship he saw around him.

The Rev. D. C. Wright, who was the first speaker and he addressed himself to the crux of the situation. The obvious fact that busy men have neglected their bibles, the reason, the way to get them back into the Sunday school, the appalling ignorance concerning the Scriptures, the necessity of getting men to realize the importance of Bible study, the way to keep them at it and a systematic organization for the purpose of working—these he considered the important issues, which when once met and worked out, made such an institution.

Religious' Face Again.
Hank Johnson had long enjoyed the distinction of being the homeliest man in Claydonville, so it was somewhat of a shock to him when Steve Higgins came into the Tourist restaurant and announced, "Boys there's a homier man than Hank over at the depot. Feller by the name of Charles Hattel Loomis that gives lectures."

Without a word Hank started across the road and was gone some time.

"Well," Steve said when Hank returned, "D'ye give up?"

"Heck!" Hank replied, "With supreme disgust. 'He's a professional!'"—From Success Magazine.

SEVERAL WESTERN STATES ARE SWEEPED

RAILROADS CRIPPLED—SNOW DRIFTED HIGH.

Denver Was Almost Cut Off From Outside World—Wheat in Kansas Damaged.

WIRES ARE DOWN AND OUT

Chicago, March 30.—According to reports received by the telegraph companies trains of the United Pacific and other western railroads traversing that territory are stalled in huge snow drifts in Colorado and Nebraska and the rotary plows have been called for.

The storm appears to have developed on the eastern slope of the Rockies and moved rapidly westward. The telegraph companies report no wire into Denver from the east, the last one, which was routed via St. Paul, Helena and Salt Lake City, failed shortly after 9 o'clock last night.

Communication with the Pacific coast also suffered.

At Limon, Colo., the snow is five feet deep, blocking traffic on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad. The railway station at Genoa, Colo., was blown away. The Kansas division of the Union Pacific is reported blocked east and west of Limon. Not a train is moving west of Julesburg, Colo., and on the central division of the Union Pacific several overland trains are stalled at Snyder, Colo., and traffic is said to be impeded on the Denver and Rio Grande between Denver and Pueblo.

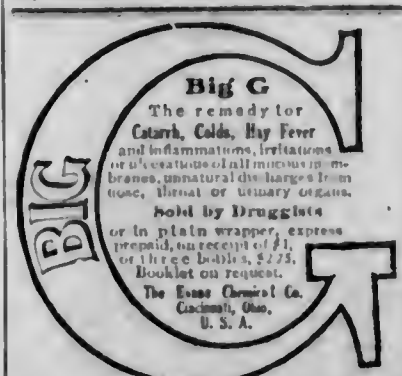

North Dakota is experiencing an old fashioned blizzard, the wind piling the snow in drifts.

Wheat in Danger.
Kansas City, March 30.—Western and central Kansas experienced a heavy sand, dust and wind storm. Telephone and telegraph wires are down and trains delayed. Prairie fires have started. It is feared the wheat crop will sustain great damage, and many fields are covered with dust.

A rainstorm with tropical violence burst upon southwestern Missouri this afternoon.

Denver Almost Cut Off.
Denver, March 30.—Winds, with hurricane violence, accompanied by heavy rain and snow, today nearly cut off the city from the outside world. Over the entire region west of Kansas City to the Pacific, from Santa Fe, New Mexico, into central Wyoming, the storm raged, paralyzing telegraphic communication and seriously delaying railroad traffic. Miles of telegraphic poles are reported down. It will probably be many hours before communication is again normal.

Let Me Tell You Something

A woman who is sick and suffering, and won't at least try a medicine which has the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, is to blame for her own wretched condition.

There are literally hundreds of thousands of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over thirty years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering. Read what these women say:

Camden, N. J.—"It is with pleasure that I read my testimonial for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, hoping it may induce other suffering women to avail themselves of the benefit of this valuable remedy."

"I suffered from pain in my back and side, big headaches, no appetite, was tired and nervous all the time, and so weak I could hardly stand. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman—and this valuable medicine shall always have my praise."—Mrs. W. P. Valentine, 122 Lincoln Ave., Camden, N. J.

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I am writing to tell you that I was pleased with your medicine. I had been sick for a long time with prostrations. I heard about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I have found that it is the right kind of medicine for me. I felt relief after taking one bottle and I kept on taking it and now I am well and strong, and am able to do my work."—Mrs. Henry Kosow, 472 Genes St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering from the same trouble?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for her advice—it is free and always helpful.

Speed Motion of the Comet.
The comets whose periods are less than one hundred years are said to be more numerous and nearly half of them have been observed more than once. At present they number forty-five, but only three of them are retrograde; that is, revolve in their orbits in the opposite direction to the planets. Halley's comet is one of these three, and as a result it will pass us with a very rapid motion. At that time the earth will be moving in its orbit at a speed eighteen miles a second, and the comet in nearly the opposite direction at a speed of twenty-five miles.

WILL TAKE VETO POWER FROM LORDS

CALLS THE HOUSE OF LORDS A CARICATURE.

Lower House Goes Into Committee of Whole to Consider Resolutions Revoking Veto Power.

PREMIER ASQUITH AGGRESSIVE

London, March 20.—The house of commons moved up into closer range with the house of lords and a profoundly significant stage of the fight between the two houses was commenced.

The lower chamber held an excited crowd when Premier Asquith moved that the house go into committee of the whole to consider the government's resolutions looking to the abolition of the veto power of the lords, of which the premier gave notice on March 21.

Briefly stated, Mr. Asquith's resolutions provide that the lords shall have no part in financial legislation; that their power over legislation shall consist only in compelling deliberation but not beyond the life of a single parliament; and that the term of parliament shall be limited to five years, instead of seven years, as at present.

Mr. Asquith traced the course of events culminating with the lords' interference with the budget measure in the last parliament, and declared that the subsequent general elections had given the house of commons express authority to bring that state of things to an end. There was both room and need for a second chamber, he said, but of such a body the present house of lords was only a caricature.

Mr. Asquith said he desired to see the predominance of the house of commons in legislation. The government believed that this was the sheath anchor of Great Britain's representative system. A proper second chamber must, he contended, be relatively small in numbers and must rest upon a democratic and not a hereditary base; must be a body which, by virtue of composition and atmosphere, will not be governed by parliamentarianism, and must be tempered against panic, but, at the same time, responsible to and dependent upon the opinion and will of the nation.

HOW HARRIMAN GOT SOU. PACIFIC

BY WITNESS IN GOVERNMENT SUIT TO DISSOLVE MERGER.

Shortly before Collis Huntington's death Hawley and Harriman Purchased 100,000 Shares.

HAWLEY TELLS THE STORY.

New York, March 30.—Edwin Hawley, who was a witness at the hearing today of the government suit to dissolve the Union and Southern Pacific merger, told how the Southern Pacific was turned over to the late E. H. Harriman.

Shortly before Collis P. Huntington's death the witness joined with Harriman in the purchase of 100,000 shares of Southern Pacific stock of the Crocker estate. After Mr. Huntington's death Mr. Hawley negotiated the sale of the Southern Pacific stock of the Huntington estate to Mr. Harriman, this stock consisting of 475,000 shares, including Mr. Hawley's own holdings, which amounted to about one-fourth.

Mr. Hawley said he had never been approached by Mr. Gould regarding the sale of the Southern Pacific stock, and had received from Mrs. Huntington the authority to sell the Huntington estate.
